1. GENERAL PROVISIONS FOR THE ORGANIZATION AND CONDUCT OF ADMISSION TO DOCTORAL STUDIES

Art 1.

Within Bucharest University of Economic Studies, accredited by the Ministry of National Education from Romania as an Institute that organises Doctoral Studies (hereinafter ASE – IODS), doctoral studies are held on a full-time or part-time basis, based on public funding or on tuition fee, according to the current provisions.

Art 2.

(1) The number of seats and the themes included in the competition by each supervisor will be endorsed by the Council for Doctoral Studies (CDS) and by the ASE's Board of Trustees and approved by ASE's Senate for each academic year.

(2) The number of seats for each Doctoral School, on public funding or on tuition fee, for the 2021-2022 academic year, will be published in accordance with the number of seats approved by the relevant Ministry (The Ministry of Education and Research).

Art 3.

The admission process consists of two examinations: the written language test and the specialty exam on the basis of the Institutional Regulation for the Organization and Conduct of Doctoral Studies from ASE – IODS.

(1) The Doctoral School Board suggests the constitution of the Admission Committee (made up of 3-5 members), which usually includes the PhD supervisors that offer vacant seats for the admission competition, which is approved by the Faculty Board and ASE's Board of Trustees.

(2) The organization and conduct of the admission competition fall under the competency of the Central Admission Committee of CDS and of the Admission Committees of the doctoral schools.

2. REQUIREMENTS REGARDING THE ADMISSION TO THE DOCTORAL STUDY PROGRAMMES

Art 4.

The admission to the Doctoral Studies in ASE – IODS is open to Master's graduates or holders of an equivalent diploma, issued in Romania or abroad, irrespective of the year of graduation. The candidates from third member states of the EU, or the EEA or the Swiss Confederation must provide documents to attest their citizenship.

Art 5.

The (Bachelor's and Master's) study programmes completed by the Doctoral candidate need to have been accredited or authorized to function temporarily, pursuant to the law, at the moment of the PhD candidates' enrolment to those programmes.

Art 6.

(1) Citizens of the European Union, the Economic European Area and the Swiss Confederation have access to doctoral studies in accordance with the same normative acts valid for Romanian citizens, including the admission and tuition fees;

(2) The admission to the doctoral studies programmes for the foreign citizens from outside the EU, the EEA and the Swiss Confederation is made in accordance with OMEN no. 3473/17.03.2017, published in the Official Gazette, Part I, no. 233 of 05.04.2017 OMEC no. 4205 of 06.05.2020 regarding the modification of some provisions from the annex of the Order of the Minister of National Education and Scientific Research no. 6.102 / 2016 for the approval of the Framework Methodology regarding the organization of admission for the undergraduate, master's and doctoral studies.

(3) The recognition of the certificates regarding the studies undertaken in countries other than Romania, including those of citizens coming from European Union countries, of the European Economic Area, and of the Swiss Confederation, falls under the competency of the specific department within the Ministry of National Education – The National Centre for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas (CNRED) <http://www.cnred.edu.ro/> and is performed according to ORDER no. 6.121 of 20th December 2016 regarding the Methodology for the recognition of documents at Bachelor's, Master's and postgraduate level issued by accredited higher education institution from abroad;

(4) The foreign citizens who compete for doctoral programmes run in Romanian, must provide a language certificate for the Romanian language, issued by an institution accredited by the Relevant Ministry.

Art 7.

Doctoral candidates may select one theme only, proposed for admission by a single supervisor.

Art 8.

The candidates who have already benefited from doctoral studies fully or partially financed from public funding have the obligation to declare it upon enrolment. A successful candidate may get public funding for the normal duration of doctoral studies only once.

Art 9.

The Central Admission Committee of CDS will publish all information regarding the admission calendar and methodology on the notice board of the institution, whereas the results of the Doctoral admission contest will be made public by pseudonymization. The pseudonymized results of the Doctoral admission contest will be kept on the www.doctorat.ase.ro web page for a full year after the date of the publication of the final admission results.

Art 10.

Only candidates meeting the language skills requirements are accepted for doctoral studies. A candidate meets the language ability standards upon one of the following four conditions:

- (1) He/she has obtained an internationally recognized language certificate for an independent user (B2) or for a proficient user (C1, C2) (Annex 3 – The language certificates recognized by ASE);
- (2) He/she has got any other language certificate that is equated by the Board of the Department for Modern Languages and Business Communication within ASE;
- (3) He/she has attended a full Bachelor's or Master's programme in English, French or German. The proof of having completed these studies needs to be written on the Bachelor's and Master diplomas and their supplements;
- (4) He/she has PASSED the language skills test taken at ASE-IODS. The procedure for this examination is presented in Annex 4.

Art 11.

- (1) The registration fee for the 2021–2022 admission to the doctoral studies is in accordance with the Methodology for the types of fees levied by Bucharest University of Economic Studies, approved by ASE's Senate;
- (2) For doctoral studies, the tuition fees are those mentioned in the Methodology for the types of fees levied by Bucharest University of Economic Studies approved by ASE's Senate and posted on <http://mefc.ase.ro/taxe> and <http://doctorat.ase.ro/taxe-bursedoctorat>.

Art 12.

Upon completion of the admission process, the signing of the doctoral studies contract, and the registration for the 2021-2022 academic year, as a first-year student, the successful candidate becomes a PhD student for the whole duration of the doctoral programme. For interruption periods, the status of PhD student is suspended.

Art 18.

Candidates have the obligation to verify the accuracy of the data entered in the registration forms and in the displayed lists and to notify any errors to the Central Commission for admission of CDS through the platform doctorat.ase.ro, within 24 hours from their display. The Central Admission Commission of CDS will specify on admission lists the date and time of posting. Failure to report any discrepancy by the candidates is equivalent to validation of the registration form received by them.

Art 19.

Once the registration for admission is over, the options for the PhD supervisor, the research topic, as well as other information, can no longer be changed.

Art 20.

The written language test lasts for 2 ½ hours and covers topics presented in Annex 4.

Art 21.

The language test is eliminatory for the option of the respective study programs. The test contains 30 questions that have only one correct answer, is marked with points from 10 to 100 and is assessed by the grade admitted / rejected. In order to obtain the grade "passed" it is necessary to accumulate a minimum of 50 points; otherwise the grade "rejected" is obtained, the candidate loses the opportunity to take the specialized exam. The test will be held by accessing the TEST link from the doctorat.ase.ro platform (on the date and times provided in Annexes 1 and 2).

Art 22.

- (1) Only the candidates who meet the language standards may take the examination on the specialized subjects.
- (2) Based on the results to the examination on the specialized subjects, candidates are assigned public funding and vacant seats.
- (3) The specialty exam is an oral exam which will take place, depending on the epidemiological situation, either face to face in a room in the ESA or by videoconference through an announced platform (<https://meet.google.com/>, <https://zoom.us/>). The conduct of the specialized exam will be recorded. The admission committee will function in full formation and will be present in the room allocated by ASE.;

- (4) The evaluation of the candidates takes place in accordance with the following criteria:
- C1 - the scientific results of the candidate in the chosen field of study (articles, research mentioned in his/her CV) (10% of evaluation);
- C2 - the quality of the Doctoral research project (DRP) (35%) assessed in relation with:
- C2.1 - The scientific background and the motivation of the selected theme (10%),
- C2.2 – Defining the objectives of the scientific research (10%),
- C2.3 – Research methodology (10%),
- C2.4 – Estimated results (5%).
- C3 – The quality of project presentation and candidate answers at the specialty exam (45%)
- C4- The theme for the competition was proposed by representatives of the business community/ public institutions (10%).
- (5) Following the specialty examination, each present member of the commission will give each candidate a mark (a round number between 10 and 1) for each evaluation criterion. The average mark given by each commission member represents the weighted mean of the marks given for each evaluation criterion. The admission average is the mean of the marks given by each member of the admission committee. The differences between the final marks awarded by the members of the admissions committee cannot be more than 2 points
- (6) Function of the admission average, a candidate can be:
- (a) Admitted for full-time, public funding, on scholarship; Admitted for full-time, public funding, without scholarship; Admitted for part-time, public funding, without scholarship; Admitted for full-time, Romanian scholarship; Admitted for part-time fee-based in lei; Admitted for part-time fee based in foreign currency; Admitted for full-time fee-based in foreign currency; Admitted for full-time, Romanian citizens outside Romania;
- (b) Pending;
- (c) Rejected;
- (7) Funding from the state budget is awarded in a descending order of admission averages obtained by each candidate, within each doctoral school. The minimum admission average for a doctoral school is 7 (seven);
- (8) For equal admission averages, the ranking of candidates will be done according to the graduation average for Bachelor's studies, and the graduation average for Master's studies. By exception, in the case of the candidates who have the legal right to apply for doctoral studies without having graduated from a Master's degree programme, the ranking of candidates with equal admission averages will be done according to the graduation average for the Bachelor studies.
- (9) The Council of the Doctoral school endorses the results of admission and sends the final results to the Central Admission Committee of CDS, together with the intermediate evaluation documents.

Art 23.

- (1) To confirm the results of the admission, candidates admitted for the public-funded seats must submit the originals of their master's and bachelor's degree diplomas, according to the admission calendar in Annex 1.
- (2) Candidates admitted for the fee-based seats must submit their master's and bachelor's degree diplomas to the ESA, in original or certified copy, and pay the fee (half of the annual fee), within the same period, according to the schedule shown in Annex 1.
- (3) At the moment of signing the contract of study, under exceptional circumstances, in case of loss or deterioration of the Bacculaureate Diploma or Bachelor's degree, the Central Admission

Commission will approve the confirmation of the public-funded seat on basis of supporting documents that attest all legal formalities for the drawing up of a duplicate of the Bacculaureate Diploma (a sworn statement certified by the Notary Public, the announcement in the Official Gazette regarding the loss/deterioration of the diploma, the address from the high school that s/he graduated from which reveals that the graduate submitted a request for the issuance of a duplicate of the Bacculaureate Diploma or the Bachelor's degree). Likewise, the candidate assigned and admitted status must submit a statement which proves that he/she will submit the original of the Bacculaureate Diploma or the Bachelor's degree at the beginning of the 2021-2022 academic year.

(4) The admitted candidates that do not confirm their seats in the period mentioned in Annex 1 to this methodology for confirmation lose the right to enrolment.

(5) The unoccupied full-time public-funded seats on scholarship will be occupied by candidates admitted on full-time public-funded seats without scholarship or by candidates admitted on part-time seats without scholarship, or by candidates on the Pending list, in descending order of the marks obtained in the specialty test, if applicable - only if they had this option at registration.

(6) The unoccupied full-time public-funded seats without scholarship will be occupied by candidates admitted on part-time seats without scholarship or by candidates admitted on part-time fee-based seats, or by candidates on the Pending list, in descending order of the marks obtained in the specialty test, if applicable. The unoccupied part-time seats without scholarship will be occupied by candidates admitted on part-time fee-based seats or by candidates on the Pending list, in descending order of the marks obtained in the specialty test, if applicable - only if they had this option at registration.

(7) The unoccupied part-time fee-based seats will be occupied by the candidates on the Pending list, in descending order of the marks obtained in the specialty test, if applicable - only if they had this option at registration.

(8) For enrolment in the first year of doctoral studies, the candidates who confirm the occupation of a seat must complete and sign the contract of studies, in accordance with the admission calendar in Annex 1 in this methodology.

(9) For enrolment the admitted candidates who are foreign citizens of third member states of the EU, the EEA and the Swiss Confederation will present study documents and identification documents from application file in original, together with the letter of acceptance and the passport with a valid visa for "studies".
